Andrea has focused her career exclusively on investment arbitration for the past 20 years. After more than 10 years practicing as a partner in White & Case's Washington DC office, where she has represented respondent States and claimant investors in equal measure in some of the most ground-breaking investment arbitration cases, Andrea recently transferred to London to grow the Firm's investment arbitration treaty practice there. Before joining White & Case, Andrea was Chief of the NAFTA Arbitration Division for the US Department of State, where she was lead counsel for the U.S. in NAFTA Chapter Eleven arbitrations.

Andrea is a Board Member of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce (SCC), a Council Member of the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre (HKIAC), a Board Member of the Association Suisse de l'Arbitrage (ASA), a past Chair of the Programme Committee for ICCA's Congress in Mauritius, a past Executive Council Member for the American Society of International Law (ASIL), and a former adjunct professor at Georgetown University Law Centre, where she taught international arbitration. Andrea frequently speaks and publishes on investment arbitration issues.
