Christopher Boog is a partner in the firm's Singapore and Zurich offices, a Vice-Chair of the International Arbitration Practice Group and co-head of the firm's Sports Law Group.

Christopher has extensive experience handling complex international arbitrations seated in common law and civil law jurisdictions worldwide. He has acted as counsel and arbitrator in over 60 arbitrations, involving a wide array of matters and under many different laws. His main areas of specialization include construction and engineering, energy (including oil & gas), infrastructure projects, commodities, as well as the pharmaceutical, automotive and mining industries. Christopher is also a skilled sports lawyer, advising and representing sports federations, officials, athletes and state entities in all of their sports law matters. He has been involved in some of the highest profile sports matters in recent years.

Christopher is highly praised in leading directories. He is ranked as one of the top 4 «Most Highly Regarded Individuals» in the world in Who's Who Legal's Future Leaders Arbitration ranking. He is quoted in Who's Who Legal as being «just brilliant», «one of the best advocates I have ever seen» and «definitely a leader in the field» (2017) and is «acclaimed» for his international arbitration work» and noted for his «astute legal mind» (2015). Chambers Global (2016) remarks that «he has an impressive range of experience and his written advocacy is very strong.» He was also shortlisted in the 'Global Rising Star of the Year' category for Euromoney's Global Arbitration Awards 2014.

Christopher regularly publishes and speaks on topics related to arbitration and teaches international arbitration at EBS Law School in Wiesbaden, Germany. He is a member of the Arbitration Court of the Swiss Chambers' Arbitration Institution, a Vice Chair of the IPBA International Construction Projects Committee, a member of the SIAC User's Council, the ICC Task Force on Emergency Arbitrator Proceedings, and the drafting committee for the revision of the DIS Arbitration Rules.

Christopher graduated with honors from the Law Schools of the universities of Fribourg and Amsterdam, The Netherlands and holds a PhD from the University of Zurich (summa cum laude; Professor Walther Hug Prize). He was also a Visiting Scholar at Columbia Law School, New York, where he conducted extensive research in the fields of international arbitration and litigation.
