

Falco Kreis

Falco Kreis is a dispute resolution expert, acting in national and international cases. He represents clients in the context of enforcing disputed claims in courts of law and arbitration proceedings, often in an international context. Falco also advises on the international recognition and enforcement of arbitral awards and court judgements. As a trained mediator, he further monitors and works on current issues and developments in alternative dispute resolution procedures.