

Karsten Kristoffersen

Managing Partner

KK@BRUUNHJEJLE.DK

+45 61 69 39 79

EXPERTISE	GENERAL
Dispute Resolution	2013	Admitted to the Danish Supreme Court
	2006	Partner, Bruun & Hjejle
	2004	LL.M., New York University School of Law, USA
	1999-2005	Attorney, Bruun & Hjejle
	1999	Master of Laws, Aarhus Universitet

PROFILE

Karsten Kristoffersen's main practice area is complex disputes involving both legal and financial issues. Karsten has extensive experience advising clients in the financial sector and the energy sector.

Within dispute resolution Karsten Kristoffersen is characterised as "highly intelligent with very good strategic and economic skills" (Chambers Global 2016), "very bright" (Chambers Europe 2012) and as "a clever litigator" (Legal500 2008), and he is "praised for his dedication and careful preparation" (Chambers Europe 2013). Winner of Best Lawyers' 2014-15 Copenhagen Dispute Resolution "Lawyer of the Year".

HIGH-LIGHTS

- The bankruptcy estate of HeSaLight related to rescission of payments and other transactions and potential liability
- A consortium of institutional investors claiming compensation following the bankruptcy of OW Bunker A/S
- A number of international arbitrations related to renegotiation of prices in natural gas and LNG
- Private equity funds in connection with claims for compensation relating to representations/warranties and specific indemnities in M&A transactions
- A listed company concerning obligations to disclose information
- Financial institutions in litigation on financial transactions and instruments
- Forensic investigations related to financial crime
- Management members and lawyers in professional liability matters