

Rikard Wikström-Hermansen

Partner

Office: Stockholm

Tel. +46 8 553 190 94

Mobile: +46 70 789 0490

rikard.wikstrom@roschier.com

Primary practices

Dispute Resolution, Projects & Energy

Languages

Swedish, English, French

Profile

Rikard Wikström-Hermansen is a Stockholm-based Partner at Roschier. He is recognized as one of the leading experts in international arbitration in Sweden. He has represented clients before courts and arbitral tribunals under various arbitration rules such as the SCC, the ICC, the SIAC and the UNCITRAL rules as well as ad hoc. The disputes have involved many different business sectors but primarily Oil & Gas, Construction, Projects & Infrastructure, IT and M&A disputes.

Rikard also regularly sits as arbitrator and has chaired several international arbitrations governed by Swedish, Russian and English law, involving Danish, Egyptian, German, Latvian, Norwegian, Russian, Spanish and Swedish parties. Before joining Roschier in 2017, he was ten years with the international law firm White & Case. Rikard is also a member of Stockholm University's Center for Commercial Law (SCCL) research panel on Arbitration and Other Dispute Resolution. He is the author of a number of publications on arbitration, as well as a frequent speaker at various conferences and events dedicated to international arbitration.

Career

Roschier, Partner (2017-)

White & Case, Partner (2012-2017), Associate (2006-2012)

Gärde Wesslau Advokatbyrå, Associate (2004-2006)

Junior Judge, Örebro District Court (2002-2004)

Education

Stockholm University, LL.M. (2001)

Augsburg College, Minneapolis, USA, B.A. (1996)